

The inaugural The Old Coach Avery Air Classic helps kickoff the 2010 football season with eight programs with a combined 14 state titles playing in four games at Carrollton's Standridge Stadium August 26-27-28.

The Old Coach Classic will showcase the start of another special start to a Texas high school football season, state championship hopes and dozens of major college prospects on the first three nights of football.

Avery Air has dedicated nearly $10,000 in college scholarships among the eight participating programs and each of the football supporting communities will have ample opportunity to enjoy enhanced pre-game tailgating.

Carrollton Newman Smith looks to rebuild on its history making season of last year by opening with the Keller Central Chargers at 7:30 p.m. Thursday.

Eight-time state champion Celina brings its Bobcats' pawprints to play speedy C-FB Ranchview for the 7:30 p.m. Friday matchup.

For a Saturday doubleheader, Waxahachie has the talent to win a Class 4A state title and the Indians will meet talent-laden, Class 5A Denton Guyer. In the second game, two of the state's best blue-collar programs meet as Flower Mound Marcus plays Garland.

On Saturday, one ticket will get admission for both games.
